

Character

Walk 04

Train

This character is the only character with a half mask, she is just arriving to Canada coming from Central America, fleeing because of the violence lived there with criminal gangs, the fabrics she is carrying represents all her baggage and I wanted to portrait this image her arriving to this new place.

Again taking about unsafety and safety, inside and outside.

Tracks

